

Incidents:

An unexpected event that may or may not have caused injury/illness or damage, but did not require medical attention from a health professional. Note: some first aid, such as icing an injury, band aid, psychological support or other may have been required.